BIOGRAPHY

NÂR is a Lebanese multi-instrumentalist, composer, and performer based in Beirut. Constantly in metamorphosis, she crafts raw, immersive experiences using analog gear, voice, and found objects. Abrasive and hypnotic, her performances are live experiments constructed from scratch—anchored in repetition and trance.

Her sound draws from a vast spectrum of influences: Middle Eastern microtonality, North African trance traditions, industrial music, and avant-garde electronic forms. In
